SABEEL is Arabic for 'the Way' / 'Channel' / 'Spring'. Sabeel is a grassroots liberation theology movement among Palestinian Christians of all traditions, promoting awareness worldwide and working for justice. It is committed to peaceful negotiation. More information can be found on www.sabeel.org

PCDC: Practical Compassion for Destitute

Children - is a registered charity based in Newcastle Diocese. Groups make regular visits to Bethlehem to support hundreds of children in Palestinian orphanages and schools. PCDC does not get involved with politics, but simply attends to the practical needs of the children, be it with education, health, hospital treatment, or basic needs like shoes or clothes.
