

Chapel House Integrated Health and Community Initiative: including Outside In project

The proposed development of the new medical centre, new DCP facilities and new church space in relation to the existing church.
The church has provided the architectural guidelines for the new development.

